Sunday P. M.

Dearest mother —

Just a little note — that is, if I can possibly cut it short.

I haven't told you about the "Trojan Women" spree yet - have I? I said I went shopping a week ago yesterday (It was last Wed. P. M.). Well, Mrs. Chad-derdon and I met at Fileen's at 3 & had tea & watched the dancing till 4. Then we met Roy about 4:30 & went to The Stadium. The production was marvellous, but I can tell you about it better face to face for There is so much.

Edith Wynne Matheson Kennedy was The best by far. The color scheme & costuming were gorgeous.

After The play Roy took us to a tea room where we had a chicken dinner. Then we came into Boston, shook Roy, and went to The movies.

Thurs. P. M. I slept. Then went to Sr. play rehearsal & to Staff. meeting. Went to dinner at Norumbega with Margaret Prall & then to steppinging. Came home & went to bed. Fri. A.M. I spent in The Lib., slept most of The P.M., & called on one of my hostesses. We were to have had a district pit party but it rained so we pushed back the tables in the living room and had it there instead. I had to leave early for the choir rehearsal.

Then stopped & called on Dr. and Mrs. Snow on the way home.

Yesterday a. m. I cut hair & washed my hair! (The most adorable baby just passed!) In The P.M. I read a little, then cleaned up in my schöne basque and went to Dr. play rehearsal. I only have to walk across the stage once. The monks waited all the afternoon & they never got to us. There were frequent showers, so we got pretty well soaked in the bargain. Rich Partridge came down to dinner with me. I dressed for the 8:30 performance of J. Z. E. Studio Reception before dinner so afterward I was able to go walking

with 3 of The girls.

The Reception was really much nicer than in 1913, because The modern portraits call for much more subtle shading and background work than The simpler Dutch ones.

Sun. night.

It's nearly 11, so I must go to bed. I have a date with the photographer tomorrow A.M.
& will send you the proofs within a week probably. I think you're foolish to want more taken.

My laundry is packed & will go tomorrow sometime. I decided I had enough things to send & that it would give you Three days longer.

I forgot the cake tin. I may send a suit box with a white skirt & teddy bears, etc. in it so you can bring them with you. Will that be all right?
Of these things smell kind of queer it's because I spilt awfully over milk on a night gown & the lucious this

A.M. Am wearing my bathrobe now, but hope to finish the kimono by Wednesday night. Think I'll visit schools in Concord Wed., by the way.

Am anxious to hear what you say on all subjects. If you haven't time to write, corner Dad or one of the boys & dictate while you're sewing, what you want to say. Thank you.

Wellesley is at its very best outdoors just now. I hope the beauty lasts till you get here.

Had next yr's Stu. J. Pres. to dinner today so my kids could meet her. Went to Mr. Mac's this P.M. & at 5 took 25 of my kids to the upper lake to eat a picnic supper. After musicals I had to play for class prayer meeting & ever since, I've been visiting with some of the "kids". I shall arrive at Monday just as rushed as usual.

Thank Bob for his letter. I didn't know the handwriting - it had such a dash.

Must close.

Love to all,
Janet.
